PROGRAM INCLUSIONS

This program represents a unique experiential-learning opportunity in an overseas environment. It presents the chance to learn of Cuba's vigorous commitment to promoting the arts in a robust manner – professionally, in schools & universities, and at the grass-roots level.

Our program takes place over 7 days in Havana – and in Cuba's far west. Pricing is set at a level designed to defray both program costs and travel costs, as follows:

- Program design & delivery. This is an experiential learning opportunity of substance and rigor, tailored specifically to the needs of US art lovers and collectors.
- Access to an array of in-country art schools and museums, arts educators, civil-society activists, and related historical & cultural venues, as described in the daily program.
- International airfare from Miami, including taxes and fees.
- International-class hotel accommodation and daytime meals. (Accommodation based on double occupancy.)
- International-class coach transport throughout Havana and las Terrazas, western Cuba, as described in the daily program.
- Local guiding and program management, plus entrance fees to indicated venues.
- Cuban entry visa.

Travel Insurance: We suggest that participants secure travel insurance. Deposits and final payments are non-refundable. See, for example, www.travelsafe.com. Premiums are modest.
