A Journey to*

MOROCCO

August 5-15, 2019

WELCOME TO MOROCCO! Over 11 days in this magical country, you will have a dizzying experience of lifetime. Each city – Casablanca, Fez, Marrakesh, and Essaouira – is diverse and unique. Morocco has been and is ‘home’ to many people. Each culture brings its unique music, food, architecture, and more.

MUSIC, DANCE, AND THE VISUAL ARTS ARE ALIVE IN MOROCCO! A thriving arts scene is evident everywhere you go! The country’s diversity informs its character, its sound, its rhythm of music and dance. There is Andalusian classical music, Berber folk music, Gnawa mystical music, classical Sufi music – plus a variety of dances rooted in Arab, Berber, and African traditions.

CULTURE IS STRONG AND RESILIENT! Moroccan culture reflects Berber, Arab, Spanish, and African influences.

MOROCCO IS A “MUST-DESTINATION” FOR FOODIES! You will enjoy the rich and varied flavors of the nation’s diverse traditions. You’ll visit eateries where locals dine, and you’ll access mouth-watering food, with influences from around the world.

MOROCCO’S HISTORY IS UNIQUE – AND ITS CULTURE RICH & TEXTURED! You’ll tour medinas, well-preserved Roman ruins, world-famous tanneries with beautiful leather shops, famed Jewish quarters, mausoleums, tombs, and royal palaces. You’ll also have the option to take camel and horse-drawn carriage rides. Traveling through the Moroccan countryside completes your experience.

MOROCCO’S ARCHITECTURE IS SIMPLY STUNNING. GEOGRAPHIC AND HISTORICAL DIVERSITY, AND SUCCESSIVE WAVES OF SETTLEMENT, makes Morocco one of the most architecturally interesting countries in the world, with Berber, Islam, Moorish, French influences.

ENJOY A HOST OF OPTIONAL ACTIVITIES! We have built in time for you to explore and enjoy several distinct cities, on your own in the afternoons and evenings. Activities range from cooking classes, camel and horse rides, beach time, visits to world-class museums & galleries, and stupendous shopping!
