EXPLORING AFRO BRAZILIAN CULTURE:

PROFESSIONAL JOURNEY & LEARNING EXPERIENCE TO BRAZIL

FEBRUARY 14-23, 2020

CONTEXT • WHY BRAZIL?

This is a 10-day journey to Salvador da Bahia – Brazil’s ‘Black Rome’. Here we explore Brazil’s African heritage. From the city’s Pelourinho core, a UNESCO World Heritage site, you will explore Afro-Brazilians’ rich and diverse culture and history.

AFRO-BRAZILIANS: THEIR HISTORY, CULTURE, AND LEGACY

From February 14-23, 2020, in Salvador, we will explore a history and culture with links to Congo, Angola, Nigeria, and elsewhere. Here, descendants of Africans brought to Brazil during the Atlantic slave trade created a legacy of tenacity and resilience. Like their US and Caribbean counterparts, Brazilians continue to grapple with slavery’s profound ramifications.

Via roundtable dialogues, school observations, and cultural activities, we explore heritage and history – but also draw Brazilian comparisons to the US civil rights and Black Lives Matter movements. Alongside Brazilian subject matter experts and colleague-educators, we ask whether access to high-quality education is equal, or whether it is the province only of those with means. We assess gender equality, and whether Brazil’s commitment to achieving it is robust. We’ll come to understand how Brazilians view race relative to social class.
